ELTON CAN WALK DOWN HIS OWN YELLOW BRICK ROAD

BY MIKE WALTERS
SIR ELTON JOHN stands proudly on Yellow Brick Road - the routeway renamed in his honour outside Watford's ground.
As we revealed last week, the lane - which runs along the length of the Sir Elton John Stand - has been changed from Occupation Road to a tribute to one of his greatest hits. Watford council approved the switch and new road signs were installed in time for his official blessing when he visited the club where he spent 20 years as chairman.

Sir Elton said: "Using 'Yellow Brick Road' is a really fantastic, clever way for supporters to

Brilliant Toon robbed by cruel, late penalty controversy in Paris farce

FROM SIMON BIRD in Paris
A CONTROVERSIAL Kylian Mbappe penalty denied Newcastle a famous victory over Paris Saint-Germain.

Alexander Isak kept the Toon's European campaign alive, netting the opener after Gianluigi Donnarumma spilled Miguel Almiron's shot.

But their hopes of reaching the last-16 are now out of their hands.

And he has told them not to be provoked by the antics of Galatasaray's players or

ACE ALVAREZ SEALS CITY COMEBACK

MAN CITY 3 RB LEIPZIG 2 Group G, The Etihad Stadium
BY JEREMY CROSS
MANCHESTER CITY produced a thumping comeback to avoid their first Champions League defeat on home soil since 2018.

Two first-half goals from RB Leipzig's record signing Lois Openda saw the visitors threaten a huge shock. But Erling Haaland started the fightback with his 40th goal in 35 Champions League games. Phil Foden equalised and then substitute Julian Alvarez (right) struck three minutes from time.

City have secured top spot in Group G, to more likely avoid a big gun in the last 16.

در پاریس از نیوکاسل دزدی شد. کلاغها با برد می توانستند جواز صعود بگیرند، اما حالا با تساوی باید نگاهشان به نتایج روز پایانی باشد.
