Teen tears as Little's largest it for Mum

TEARFUL Luke Littler unfurled another hall of magic darts and told his mum: "The dream continues."

Luke the Nuke, 16, stormed into the fourth round of the Paddy Power PDC World Championship at Alexandra Palace with a dazzling 4-1 win against Canada's Matt Campbell.

After hugging his mum Lisa, left, Littler said: "I started crying when I saw her in the crowd. She was nervous and I said to her, 'The dream continues'. She said the same thing." Litterer now faces either five-times world champion Raymond van Barneveld or Jim Williams after becoming the youngest player to reach the last-16 in the tournament's history.

He would love to take on idol Barney who, at 56, is 40 years older than the Warrington whizz, and added: "Obviously, to play Raymond would be unbelievable."
